Form 990 - Organization's Mission

The Christmas Box International partners with local, national and international communities and groups to prevent child abuse and to improve the quality of life for children, teens and young adults who have been abused, neglected or are facing homelessness. Our motto is simple: every child deserves a childhood.

Provided resources to 9,155 children, youth and young adults who have been abused, neglected or faced homelessness in Utah and in 4 countries in collaboration with partnering child welfare agencies and charities serving children, teens, and young adults.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First AccomplishmentThe Christmas Box Houses Support Services:

The Christmas Box Houses (CBH) in Salt Lake, Ogden, and Moab, UT, were created and built by The Christmas Box International to partner with Utah's state and county child welfare agencies in providing services for traumatized children entering state's custody, including emergency shelter care, assessment, health, therapeutic, educational and recreational services, and book nooks and blanket rooms stocked with new books cozy blankets for the children. 826 children in total were served at these locations. These facilities offer a safe place for children who need to be removed from their homes due to abuse, neglect, trafficking, or facing homelessness. CBH's serve 39 sibling groups each month between all three shelter facilities. Children with special medical needs and children with more severe behavioral issues until a longer-term placement can be found in

These resources serve children and teens: staying at The Christmas Box Houses, SLCO Youth Services Shelter Group Home and Milestone Transitional Living Program homes, youth currently in foster care and aging out of foster care, children receiving in-home services, children being raised by relatives, and children being serviced internationally through partnering nonprofits. Volunteers and community members support the Christmas Box Resource Rooms (CBR). Resource rooms ease the financial costs on foster families, kinship placements, and at-risk young adults starting their journey into adulthood.

Such conflicts might occur if: My personal business or my friend or relative provides goods or services to The Christmas Box International for consideration; or a vendor or business acquaintance with whom I have an outside business relationship provides goods or services to The Christmas Box International for consideration.

If I am requested by The Christmas Box International to perform a service, or provide a product for the organization, competitive bids will be sought and/or comparable valuation determined. I will recuse myself from any board vote from which I could potentially benefit. If the contract is awarded, the board member will be paid accordingly for the service or product. If actual or apparent conflicts of interest are disclosed or otherwise identified the Board Chair is ultimately responsible for determining whether an actual conflict of interest exists. The Board Chair may ask other board members to assist in this determination. If a board member is determined to have a conflict of interest the board member is excluded from voting on related matters. If necessary, the board member may be excused from the board. If a staff member is determined to have a conflict of interest, the appropriate action is determined by the Board Chair on a case-by-case basis.
